| Learner: Bāsi' ari nyan nga būlan gab'igab'i na gid naga'uyan? | Why is it that this month it rains heavily every night? |
| Kausap: Imaw na gida ini nga tyimpo ang tinguyānon. | This is really the time for rainy season. |
| Learner: Ma'āyo lang gāni' kay uyan lang waya' ning hāngin. | It is good because it rains only and (there is) no wind. |
| Kausap: Basta tyad ini nga būlan hay panahon ini nang habāgat. | Every time this month comes, it is the time for the Southwest monsoon. |
| Learner: Nagabagyo ba diri sa indo? | Does the typhoon hit your place? |
| Kausap: Hū'o may bīsis gid gāni' nga tu'igtū'ig naga'āgi diri ang bagyo sa Romblon. | Yes, there are times every year when typhoons pass through Romblon. |
| Learner: Bukon ba makūsog ang hāngin diri sa indo kung may bagyo. | Is the wind not strong in your place when there is a typhoon? |
| Kausap: Aba! Makūsog ang hāngin diri sa āmon kung igwa ning bagyo. | Oh no! The wind is strong in our place when there is typhoon. |
| Learner: Hay kundi' ang indo manga tanum hay nasisīra'. | So your plants are surely destroyed? |
| Kausap: Hū'o, pīro pagkatāpos nang bagyo matanum naman kami liwat. Adlaw'adlaw yadto kami sa uma. | Yes, but we plant them again after the typhoon has gone. Every day we go to the upland field. |
